“THE JOYS OF VOLUNTEERING”

with Guest Speaker

Bob Dickinson

President & CEO of Carnival Cruise Lines
Chairman, Camillus House Board of Directors

Bob Dickinson has been with Carnival Cruise Lines since 1972 and the company President since 1993. During his 34 years with the company, he has helped build Carnival into the world's most popular and successful cruise business. But for thousands across South Florida, what has made a difference is Bob's belief that we have a responsibility to help others. A passionate believer in the Camillus House goal of ending chronic homelessness in Miami, Dickinson has been a Camillus House board member since 1998 and Chairman since 2002. He has been a tireless advocate for homeless families and individuals, promoting the intrinsic value of volunteering, and enlisting the support of the business and philanthropic communities. Bob knows that every service offered by Camillus House stems from the deeply held core belief that every human being deserves love, respect and an opportunity to live a dignified life. It is that belief that makes volunteering such an educational, enriching, and life affirming experience. In addition to Camillus House, Bob is also very involved with several other charities including United Way of Miami-Dade County and the National Foundation for Advancement in the Arts, and is a member of St. Thomas University's board of trustees and the board of directors for Florida International University.

The Camillus House Young Leaders are a diverse group of individuals who share a desire to make a difference in the lives of poor and homeless men, women and children served by Camillus House. Members support Camillus House by volunteering their time, talents and energy promoting the organization's mission by raising awareness and funds through various special events and volunteer activities.
